DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Election November 4th

For President:
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice-President:
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
Tenth Congressional District
HARRY ST. GEORGE TUCKER

Election of John W. Davis Grows Brighter

Reports received at State Democratic Headquarters show a strong drift toward John W. Davis for president as well as the entire national ticket both in the House and Senate.

The tide appears to be rapidly turning toward the Democratic nominee and reports coming to Richmond headquarters from National Democratic headquarters plainly indicate a Davis victory. A decided drift of sentiment just sixteen days prior to the prior to the election is hard to head off, or slow up, and it is believed that, within the next ten days, his victory will be plainly visible to all close political readers of the press.

Reports at headquarters indicate the usual substantial majorities for H. Lester Hooker, Democratic nominee for State Corporation Commissioner and Carter Glass for re-election to the United States Senate.

Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything.

"I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down.

"I was very nervous. I would have a tired, dull headache.

"I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second . . . it was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui.

"I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine."

Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of 'any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

His remains were brought home here for interment, and Rev. W. W. Royal and Dr. L.R Thornhill held funeral services for him at Liberty Baptist church Sunday, where he had been a member for 44 years and at the time of his death was on the Board of Deacons, of the church. Deacons and officers of the church acted as pall-bearers and his remains were interred at Liberty Cemetery in the presence of a very large crowd of friends of the family.

J. T. Twyman

A verdict of accidental death was rendered by a coroner's jury yesterday after investigating the automobile wreck which caused the death of J. Taylor Twyman, prominent Charlottesville insurance man, on the Valley Pike, four miles south of Harrisonburg Saturday night. J. Hunter White, of Norfolk, another insurance man, driver of the car, was uninjured. White and Twyman were enroute to Winchester, after attending the V. M. I. Virginia game at Lexington. Blinding headlights of a passing car and a pile of rock beside the road are believed to have caused Mr. White to lose control of his machine. The car struck the rock pile and then overturned. Twyman was dead when picked up. Twyman was about 35 years old. He is survived by his widow and a child. His body was taken to Charlottesville. It was accompanied by a brother, Horace Twyman. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, of Lynchburg and of Dr. D. N. Twyman, of Appomattox.—Harrisonburg Dispatch to News.
